

PULCHRA Project Workshop

“City Challenges – Open Schooling – The Cities as Urban Ecosystems”

November 30, 2021

Host: Charles University and TEREZA Educational Centre, Czech Republic

Time and place: 10:30 – 16:45 CET, ZOOM Platform

Registration link: <https://forms.gle/5Ld5s7BJji93TfRq9>

Agenda

10:15 – 10:30 Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues

10:30 – 10:50 Opening of the meeting

- Opening and welcome by Constantinos Cartalis, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece
- Keynote speech by Alise Oļesika, The Head of the Education Department of the UNESCO National Commission, Latvia

10:50 – 11:40 Open Schooling and science grounded in students' inquiry

- Inquiry based learning workshop, Vendula Jansová, Lenka Kleger, TEREZA Educational Centre, Czech Republic
- Open Schooling concept - experience from other European projects, Thalia Mavroukou, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece

11:40 – 12:30 Research and communication Tools in PULCHRA

- Remote sensing Tool, Přemysl Štych, Josef Laštovička, Charles University, Czech Republic
- Pulchra App, Christina Garoufalia, Corallia, Greece

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch break

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 824466

13:30 – 14:00 PULCHRA Projects Matter. Why let the world know about your activities.

Marie Drahoňovská, journalist and author of the PULCHRA Handbook of a Young Reporter, Czech Republic

14:00 – 15:10 Challenges in our city, school presentations

Teachers and students from PULCHRA schools are sharing their results and experiences.

Presentations by:

- Lorella Rigonat and students from ISIS Bassa Friulana, Italy
- Marzena Papis and students from Stefan Żeromski Secondary School No. 1 In Opoczno, Poland
- Nikolas Nicolau and students from Agios Ioannis Lyceum, Cyprus
- Cristian Radu, student from Dinicu Golescu National College, Romania
- Nadia Gambon and students from Nicolo Copernico Lyceum, Italy
- Magdalena Przuluska and students from Nicolaus Copernicus Secondary School No. 2 In Lowicz, Poland
- Geitonas High School, Greece, prerecorded presentation

15:10 – 15:25 Break

15:25 – 16:15 Our PULCHRA experience, discussion in parallel sessions

Session 1: Opportunities and barriers to the Open Schooling Concept in practice. How stakeholder engagement and communication help in project implementation.

Presentations by:

- Geitonas High School, Greece (prerecorded)
- Elementary School T.G.M. Moravské Budějovice, Czech Republic

Session 2: Engaging students in school projects. Teachers' experiences from different City Challenges. How to involve students in school projects? What impact does PULCHRA have on this? What is the importance of open schooling projects for student learning?

Presentations by:

- Agios Ioannis Lyceum, Cyprus
- Colegiul National George Cosbuc, Bucharest, Romania

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 824466

Session 3: Implementing PULCHRA Project activities into teaching and school curricula. PULCHRA projects as a part of curricular or extra-curricular activities and related benefits and disadvantages.

Presentations by:

- "ŁEJERY" PRIMARY SCHOOL IN POZNAN, Poland (prerecorded)
- Heinrich-Heine Gymnasium, Germany

16:15 – 16:25 Conclusions

16:25 – 16:45 PULCHRA Snacks

Open discussion between participants.

Times are given in CET (Prague time, Vienna, Berlin), it means UTC + 1 hour

For further information about PULCHRA Project visit: <https://pulchra-schools.eu/>

For information about the Workshop visit: <https://pulchra-schools.eu/announcements/>

In case of any questions, please contact Lenka Kleger, lenka.kleger@terezanet.cz or Premysl Stych, stych@natur.cuni.cz.

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 824466